For additional information and resources about financial aid, you may also visit OSFA’s Navigating Your Financial Future (NyFF) website at www.NavigatingYourFuture.org. For specific questions, you may contact Outreach Services by selecting the Contact Us tab on our website.
There are two types of financial aid:

GIFT AID includes grants and scholarships – gifts of money to pay for college that you do not have to repay.

SELF-HELP AID includes employment and student loans that need to be repaid.

Seek financial aid in the following areas to ensure that you have utilized every resource available to fund your postsecondary education:

Federal financial aid (opens October 1)
State financial aid (opens October 1)
Institutional Aid (after acceptance by institution)
Private Scholarships (anytime)
The U.S. Department of Education is the largest source of federal student aid. Students are encouraged to submit the FAFSA on or after October 1 of each year and annually thereafter to seek federal aid. The FAFSA may also be used to apply for need-based aid from other sources including state, school, or private entities. Please note that the deadlines for other sources may vary from the federal guidelines.

Federal Grant and Work-Study Programs

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Federal Grant</th>
<th>General Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Federal Pell Grant</td>
<td>The Federal Pell Grant Program provides need-based grants to low-income undergraduate and certain postbaccalaureate students to promote access to postsecondary education. Grant amounts are dependent on: the student’s expected family contribution (EFC); the cost of attendance (as determined by the institution); the student’s enrollment status (full-time or part-time); and whether the student attends for a full academic year or less.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)</td>
<td>The FSEOG is offered to Pell Grant recipients who have exceptional financial need. The FSEOG program is administered directly by the financial aid office at each participating school and is therefore called “campus-based” aid. Not all schools participate. Check with your school’s financial aid office to find out if the school offers the FSEOG.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant</td>
<td>The TEACH Grant Program provides grants of up to $4,000 a year to students who are completing or plan to complete course work needed to begin a career in teaching. Certain restrictions apply. To learn more, visit: 1.usa.gov/1n7lCuE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Federal Work-Study (FWS)</td>
<td>The FWS Program provides funds for part-time employment to help needy students to finance the costs of postsecondary education. For additional information, please contact your postsecondary institution.</td>
</tr>

Writing the Essay

Many scholarship committees are looking for students who have the ability to communicate effectively in writing. Essays are an excellent way for scholarship judges to choose the most qualified candidates.

1. Give yourself time.
   A quality essay takes time.

2. Follow directions.
   Pay attention to the word count, font size, and eligibility requirements for the scholarship.

3. Focus on the topic.
   Answer the question that is being asked.

4. Create an outline.
   Framework your essay to help you focus.

5. Edit/proofread your work.
   Be clear and concise.
   Correct any errors.

   Ask trusted teachers, family, and friends to read the essay and provide feedback.
